CIRCUS OF THE WILD

50' (ENG, GER, SPA, FRA), 90' (ENG, GER)

They bring us joy, they make us laugh. The world is their stage.

Barbary macaques are up to mischief in Gibraltar, pickpocketing unwary tourists at lightning speed. Funny? Yes – if you're not the victim!

On Ellesmere Island in the Canadian Arctic, filmmakers are witnessing some pretty crazy behaviour, the wolves there have found a cameraman's lost cellphone, now they're playing football with it. Social media for canids.

And then there's the one about the luxury tourist lodge accidentally built on a highway – an elephant highway. Now holiday makers get to have a wild experience without having to step outside. And if they do? Maybe the elephants will have the last laugh.
