INSIDE GUGGENHEIM

52' (ENG)

An intimate tour of the legendary Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, Spain.

In 1992, New York's Guggenheim Foundation chose this industrial city in southern Europe to build a risky modern art project designed by Canadian-American architect Frank Gehry. The film reveals the secrets of this titanium, architectural masterpiece with its modern art heart. It has become one of the most visited museums in Spain and is an icon of modern art. We get a rare insight into the unique situations leading to the assembly of its works and hear the anecdotes lived by its professionals.
