IN A SEA OF DUST AND STARS - HIKING MAURITANIA

45' (ENG, GER)

Embark on a desert adventure unlike any other, experience absolute freedom, and learn what means to endure heat, thirst and isolation.

Adventurer Samuel Häde travels from the Atlantic to the Sahara on the longest goods train on earth, and walks the incredible 400 km to the oasis settlement of Moudjeria on foot, through the surreal scenery of endless dune ridges, enveloped in a sea of dust and stars. His desert adventure becomes a mind-expanding experience unlike any other, enchanting with a magic that awakens a deep-seated longing for freedom even in the most seasoned viewer.
