NUKEMAILING – NUCLEAR BLACKMAIL AT STATE LEVEL

52' (ENG, GER)

This is the story of how Russia blackmails the world with threats of nuclear weapons and terrorism at nuclear power plants during its invasion of Ukraine.

This documentary tells the story of Russia's systematic implementation of a nuclear terrorism strategy - a strategy currently being implemented in the form of the seizure of nuclear power plants and threats during Russia's aggression in Ukraine. Delve into the dark world of nuclear weapons and their use as a tool of terror. Through never-before-seen footage and interviews with experts and key players, we explore how nuclear power has become a dangerous game in the hands of rogue states like Russia. With the vulnerability of civil nuclear infrastructure, as well as the global threat of nuclear weapons the stakes have never been higher. This is an intertwining of personal and global stories that reveal the chilling truth about the world's nuclear safety and what needs to be done to protect us all.
