WILD HORSES OF ANDALUSIA

52' (ENG, GER)

"Parque Nacional de Doñana" in Andalusia is home to the Marismeño horses.

The rare breed roams freely - until the annual "Saca de las Yeguas", when around 1,500 animals are brought to the cattle market in Almonte. The mare round-up has a tradition of over 500 years. Join rider Carmen Reales Ramos and her 10-year-old cousin, who is taking part for the first time, on their journey.
