BORDERLAND

S1: 4 x 45', S2: 4 x 45' (GER)

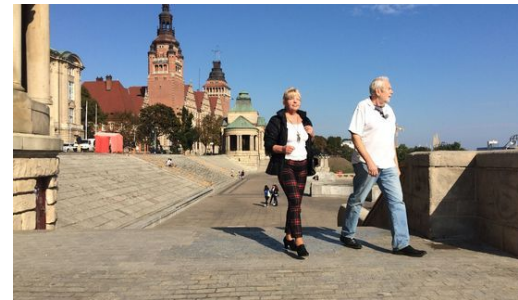

See the opportunities and challenges of living in a border region.

Since the European Schengen Agreement, the borders have been open. This four-part series shows how life in the German border regions has changed. We accompany local people in their everyday lives. What does open border mean for cultural life? How has professional life changed? Where are the opportunities and challenges in a boader land? We have asked people who will know.
