WHATEVER MAY COME

3 × 52', 120' (ENG, GER)

333 days of travelling and a trip of more than 50.000 kilometers through 22 countries: Christian Vogel is telling his intimate story of his adventurous expedition around the world.

Christian Vogel is about to fulfil his life's dream.
He wants to accomplish a teenage desire – to go once around the world on a motorbike. He gave up the lease on his apartment and resigned from his job as TV editor. And on the 19th of May he begins his journey into the unknown: His route takes him through the US, Canada, Russia, China and India. Moreover he is making long excursions through Mongolia, Pakistan, Nepal and Iran. The journey does not only hold spectacular moments and unforgettable experiences but also immense challenges and dangers.
