A GOAL FOR FREEDOM - WOMEN'S FOOTBALL IN KABUL

45' (GER, ENG subs)

Between fear and terror - between courage and hope: the female football players of Kabul.

Living in one of the most dangerous cities in the world, they are an example of the struggle for a little more self-determination of an entire generation of young women in traditional patriarchal Afghanistan.

The documentary accompanies Madina Azizi, a football coach and former member of the Afghan national football team and her girls in their everyday life as footballers in Kabul, fighting a daily fight against discrimination and hostility.
