The Asian Financial Crisis and its Aftermath

4K

- › 52' (ENG, GER)
- › 2022
- › Pronoun Film, ZDF, arte, ORF, Deutsche Welle

The Asian financial crisis of 1997/98 was the largest global financial crisis since the 1930s and follows Asia's decoupling from the "West" model. Today, the geopolitical consequences of this alienation are being felt more than ever. The Asian financial crisis came without warning and deprived millions of people of their livelihoods. Measures by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) did not stabilize the situation but, according to critics, exacerbated it. The West failed to master the global crisis and the consequences of this crisis are still being felt today. Did the reactions of the sudden economic powers contribute to East Asia decoupling from the West?

China's New Silk Road in Europe

HD

- › 45' (ENG, GER)
- › 2022
- › Zeitsprung, WDR

Duisburg, Liège or Valenciennes have more in common with cities like Marseille and Trieste than is initially obvious. They are European bridgeheads of the new Silk Road initiative, which is intended to help turn China into the first modern socialist world power by 2049. Europe plays a central role, and the Chinese campaign for influence and power in Europe is now in full swing. What are the concrete consequences of the Chinese initiative, where trade routes and logistics are being redesigned or rebuilt on a grand scale? What happens on the ground when a Chinese master plan and indigenous structures collide? How does this change the familiar working and living spaces? What different reactions does this trigger?

DOC

› 52' (ENG), 75' (GER, FRE)

› 2021

› Hoferichter &amp; Jacobs, MDR, arte

On December 25, 1991, the Soviet Union collapsed. Along with it came hope for the end of the Cold War, for independence and freedom for the former Soviet republics. But for many it brought poverty and war. What remains of the dreams of that time? What does freedom look like, which in large parts still has to be defended and fought for today? What role does Russia play in the post-Soviet power structure? We talk to contemporary witnesses and politicians of the decisive years, search for traces of the former multi-ethnic empire in Kyrgyzstan, Ukraine, Chechnya and Lithuania, and talk to experts about this gigantic historic upheaval.

Agents of Democracy - Civil Society Under Attack

HD

› 52' (ENG, GER, FRE)

› 2021

› Docdays, SWR, arte, Deutsche Welle

Where populists and autocrats rule, civil liberties, government critics and non-governmental organisations are under pressure. Even worse: activists are not only attacked or arrested; laws also criminalise them and deprive them of funding. Not only committed individuals, but also NGOs operating worldwide have become targets of those in power. Are we living in times of a global frontal attack on civil society? And what happens when this important pillar of democracy is silenced? What can be done to counter this development? The film embarks on a journalistic journey to find answers in India, Russia and Poland.
